

Please indicate your school:

- GSBS
- SHP
- SOM
- SON
- SOP

Please rate the following statements using the provided rating scale.

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
Sex and gender are important variables to consider when providing healthcare.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Understanding sex and gender differences in health is important knowledge for health professions students.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
My skills in communicating with other healthcare professionals would be improved through learning with students from other healthcare professions.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Learning with students from other healthcare professions is likely to improve the care that patients receive.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Learning with students from other healthcare professions is likely to help overcome stereotypes that are held about the different professions.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

How confident are you in your ability to use principles of sex and gender specific health to improve patient-centered care?

How confident are you in your ability to identify the various healthcare providers' roles and their respective responsibilities?

How confident are you in your ability to communicate effectively with a wide variety of healthcare professionals in a collaborative practice setting?

How confident are you in your ability to work effectively within a team of other healthcare professionals?